Variety is the spice of art

It's a good thing the DeCordova Annual Exhibition focuses on variety. Otherwise, how would the curators integrate Sandra Allen's 37-foot-tall drawing of a tree and Jeff Warmouth's "Spudnik" installation involving space program politics and potatoes? Ten New England artists who draw, photograph, install, sculpt, and make prints will fill the galleries, grand staircase, and hallways of the DeCordova through Aug. 12; there's a reception for the show tonight from 6 to 9. The trees (Allen's pencil drawing "Howl" is below), taters, and more are on view Tuesday through Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: $9, $6 for students, seniors, ages 6-12. DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park, 51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln, 781-259-8355. decordova.org. [J.W.]
